Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 7th February 1871.

No. 182A. Read the following letter from R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., Magistrate of Tinnevelly, to the Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Pudukudi, 2nd February 1871 :—

I HAVE committed one Ragavachari, a Contractor, for trial before the Sessions Court of this district on charges of cheating, abetting a public servant (an Overseer of the Department Public Works) in criminal breach of trust, and in fabricating false evidence in a judicial proceeding. In his defence he cites Major Prendergast, R.E., formerly Superintending Engineer of this Division, and now serving in Madras, and, agreeably to the provisions of Section 228 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, he has deposited a sum of 500 Rupees for Major Prendergast's expenses to and fro. I have, therefore, the honour to request that you will have the enclosed Summons served on Major Prendergast, and will permit him to appear before the Sessions Court of this district on the 15th instant.

No. 183. ORDER THEREON, 7th February 1871, No. 387.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 16.

THE Summons received with this letter will be forwarded to Captain Prendergast with a view to his making arrangements for proceeding to Tinnevelly and appearing before the Sessions Court of that district on the 15th instant.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) CHARLES A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,

Secretary to Government.
